

The implementation of BPL would likely constitute a substantial source of interference to the frequencies that are utilized by a number of services, not the least of which is Amateur Radio.

I recommend that any such implementation of BPL be accompanied by strict limitations on BPL's impact on existing radio services so as not to interfere with these longstanding services.

thank you,

don falconer